Ebony Nurses Share Christmas With Seniors

The Ebony Nurses Association of Tacoma gave 74 food baskets to Senior Citizens at 1202 So. M.,Monday, December 12, 1983, at 6:30 p.m.

The christmas tree lit up the room with its many colors of red, blue, green, and yellow where the seniors gathered full of laughter and smiles. The Ebony Nurses exchanged hugs and kisses as they gave apples, bananas, grapes, and oranges to the elderly citizens. Those that were disabled received their baskets from their apartments.

This gesture is one of the many things that the Ebony Nurses Association do for people. It is designed to help build self esteem in individuals. They are active in fund raising for minorities who attend nursing school. The organization is a volunteer effort and seek to emphasize a chain of love and brotherhood."

Association members include: Lucille Jackson-President, Sue Yarborough-Vice-President, Lottie Herrington-Activity Director, Anne Johnson-Treasurer, Ann Sledge-Parliamentariar, Alberta Tisdale-Recording Secretary.

Meetings are held every 4th Sunday, 5:00 p.m. at Tisdale Consstruction Building located at 2502 SO. J St. Interested nurses are asked to attend and may join by completing and returning an appreciation along with the payment of dues for one year, $25.00.

Mortgages

The Washington State Housing Finance Commission today approved sale of $193.5 million in tax-exempt mortgage revenue bonds. As a result of the sale, starting in the first week of January qualified home buyers will be able to apply for home mortgages at 11.18% interest.

The mortgages are fixed-rate 30-year mortgages. A minimum down payment of only 5% is required. This low down payment requirement combined with a lower interest rate creates a substantial saving for consumers in Washington State.

There will be a set closing cost fee of 4.75% of the mortgage, which may be paid by the seller; other customary closing costs must also be paid, such as fees for credit check, appraisal, and so on.

An upper price limit has been set for homes that may be purchased through this program. For most of the state, that limit is $85,030 for a new home, and $62,810 for an existing home, but in King and Snohomish Counties, the price limit is $96,800 for a new home, and $89,210 for an existing home.

To have a loan processed, the prospective buyer should go to the participating lender with: a copy of the earnest money agreement, Federal Income Tax forms for the previous three years, and credit history information such as bank account and credit card numbers and credit references. Applicants must have income sufficient to qualify for the mortgage.

To qualify for a loan, the applicant must have an income of no more than $27,540 to $33,000 depending on family size; except in King and Snohomish Counties where the income ceiling is between $32,400 and $38,800 depending on family size. Except in designated areas, the loans are reserved for first-time home buyers.

Twenty percent of the mortgage funds, over $35 million, is designated for target areas within the state. In these economically depressed areas, closing costs are lower, all interested home buyers, not just first-time buyers, are eligible, and the allowable home purchase price is higher. This flexibility is designed to encourage investment in these areas. The commission has also taken steps to insure loan availability in both rual and metropolitan areas.

Half of the funds not used in target areas, or over $70 million, is reserved as sub-commitments for builders and developers for new homes constructed after December 1, 1983.

Over $70 million will also be available for the purchase of existing homes, or new homes on which construction began prior to December 1, 1983.

Navy Shells Missle Site

The USA followed up quickly on its warnings to Syria not to fire on American reconnaissance planes flying over Lebanon.

Syrian forces fired missiles and anti-aircraft guns at two USA jets. Two Navy ships quickly bombarded Syrian-supported militia positions in mountains near here.

It was the first exchange of fire since two attacking U.S. warplanes were shot down Dec. 4 by the Syrians.

It was the quickest response yet, within minutes, by the USA the cruiser Ticonderogs and destroyer Tatnall fired 35 shells.

HAVE YOU BELIEVED OUR REPORT
SERIES # 33
ISAIAH 53: 1 & 2

Who hath believed our report? and to whom is the arm of the Lord revealed?

For he shall grow up before him a tender plant, and as a root out of dry ground.

He hath no form nor comiliness: and when we shall see him, there is no beauty that we should desire him.

WORDS OF WISDOM
PSALMS 37: 1-7

FRET not thyself because of evildoers, neither be thou envious against the workers of iniquity.

For they shall soon be cut down like the grass, and wither as the green herb.

Trust in the Lord, and do good; so shalt thou dwell in the land, and verily thou shalt shalt be fed.

Delight thyself also in the Lord; and he shall give thee the desires of thine heart.

Commit thy way unto the Lord; trust also in him; and he shall bring it to pass.

And he shall bring forth thy righteousness as the light, and thy judgment as the noonday.

Rest in the Lord, and wait patiently for him fret not thyself because of him who prospereth in his way, because of the man who bringeith wicked devices to pass

Cease from anger, and forsake wrath; fret not thyself in any wise to do evil.

PRISONER'S CORNER

In an effort to keep our reades informed, Tacoma Facts will be publishing PRISONER"S CORNERS", A weekly article from the Prisoner's themselves However the opinions are not neccessarily those of the Publisher.

Once again, the new year is upon us, and with that, one thinks about the new years resolution. The disparity within one counts an administrative system has come to an impasse.

The overcrowding has become a horible enity, yet and still the state coffers are over flowing with funds only because of the mass of bodies that are continually being clammed within our institutions. The legislature continues to appropriate new funds for new prisons, physical changes within our old ones, beefing up the staff and virtually any other needs that our administrators might need to continue with a successful Program. At the same time, jobs for prisoners are on the decline. Forty-eight percent of the population is literally stagnant.

This institution in particular is on semi-lockdown. The minds and bodies of our convicted felons are festering and lay dormant due to the fact that apporpriate criteria are being overlooked because of insufficent funds.

We are dealing with a 1983 system with 1883 tactics. Communication between the staff and residents is completely non-existant. (As far as the staff are concerned, why should there be). So, my point is this; each new year usually begins about positive affirmations throughout the various aspects of our lives and livelihood.

Fisk: The Miracle Of Christmas

This time of year provides a continuing reminder that we should give and share. And no one needs to do that more than the Afro-American community.

The tragedy at Fisk University in Nashville provides us with an excellent opportunity to aid one of our Black colleges and to literally warm the hearts (and bodies) of the 600 students and faculty.

Last week, I reviewed the financial crisis at Fisk and concluded that only a complete change in leadership is going to save the school.

The resignation of the president is a good first step which should be followed by a resignation of the university's board of trustees.

In the meantime, the reality of the fiscall miscues need attention. I am proud to be affiliated with one that started with Dr. Gladys D.W. Motley, Vice President for Student Affairs at Delaware State College.

The student body of this Delaware Black college has undertaken a fund raising campaign to assist Fisk in paying its $170,000 delinquent heating bill. They call it "Fighting For Fisk: Keeping The Legacy Alive."

Kevin Lamb, Delaware State's student government leader, requests that you send your donations (payable to Fisk University Fund) to Mrs Mildred J. Haney, Dean of Student Affairs, 1000 17th Street North, Nashville, Tennessee 37203 and state that it is to be used exclusively to pay the gas bill accumulated as of November 17, 1983. That stipulation will avoid any possible mismanagement.

The Fisk alumni has started a drive to reduce the school's $2.8 million debt and to restore heat to the buildings. For example, the Nashville Gas Company restored heat in a female dormitory after a $13,000 payment (new debt: $157,000) and a $12,000 security bond.

Futhermore to keep the school open, an agreement was reached with the Metro Department of Water and Sewage Services on that $140,000 obligation and a $86,000 payment was made to the Internaal Revenue Service on that $500,000 bill for unpaid payroll taxes.

Employees of the gas company gave $2,500 dollars and Fisk students collected donations outside the gas company. A Gannett newspaper in Nashville, The Tennessean, and WSMU-TV there launched a "Turn on the Gas" campaign which raised $50,000. Another $4,000 came from Meharry Medical College.

And from around the nation, the call to save Fisk has been answered. We know very well what's at stake. In addition to nurturing scholars such as W.E.B. DuBois, Fisk was the first Black University to be accredited and the first to be granted a chapter of the Phi Beta Kappa honor society.

Then, of course, there were the Fisk Jubilee Singers of the 1870's who helped legitimize the Black spirituals in the North and in Europe.

In the fall of 1871, a little band of five Black women and four men (most of whom were freed slaves), led by their White music teacher, imposed on a meeting of the National Council of Congregational Churches in Oberlin, Ohio.

But that frateful day in Oberlin, Ohio placed the noted abolitionist Rev. Henry Ward Beecher on the path of the "colored students from Fisk University," as they were originally called.

Shortly after Christmas of that year, 1871, after being named "The Jubilee Singers" (from the Jewish Jubilee Year) by George White after praying for guidance, their fame had spread and they had earned $21,500. After paying their bills, $20,000 was used to purchase the 25 acres on which Fisk now stands.

Is that a Christmas story? Exactly 112 Christmases ago, Fisk was on the verge of extinction--and faith, faith in God, saved her.

And on that holy occasion God used nine Black children, two White men, a Christian holiday, a Jewish "Jubilee" exodus from Egypt, the touched hearts of those who donated the $21,500 and the songs which glorified faith in Him and the glory of His works.

HE created Fisk. And He is now using us to preserve His works. It's almost Christmas of 1983. Remember the miracle of 1871. Help Fisk --again.

DIET FACTS & FALLACIES

COULD YOUR DIET BE HURTING RATHER THAN HELPING?

"Dieting" could perhaps be labeled the American public's most popular obsession. This year, over 40 million Americans will attempt some type of diet. The result for the vast majority is failure. In fact, only 4 percent of all those who attempt diets will be able to maintain their weight loss for more than one year.

Consider these points BEFORE starting a diet:

- Is this diet one that your doctor would approve?
- If you have a health problem, is it taken into consideration?
- Could this diet result in a dangerous health condition?
- Is this diet one that you can live with?
- Has this diet actually worked for others?
- Does this diet provide adequate, essential nutrients through a variety of foods?
- Does this diet teach you how to maintain your weight loss?

A diet that cannot meet these criteria provides only a temporary answer. For a nutritionally sound and permanently effective solution, contact your local Diet Center Counselor.

Health Care Crisis

If you read the papers the growing health care crisis is one of finances -- runaway medical care costs take a fast-growing share of the nation's resources. The federal government foots almost a third of the nation's $300 billion health bill and the impact on the budget makes cost containment the hot issue in Washington.

But that perspective is a narrow one. The real issue should be equal acess to quality health care for all.

That's not to ignore the importance of getting the nation's medical bill under control. But to limit debate on health policy to costs is to ignore the more urgent question of keeping our people healthy.

There is not necessarily a conflict between the two goals. Costs can be contained while at the same time equal access is ensured. But that may take a very different healthcare system

The present patch-work system evolved over time The federal Medicare program covers health care costs of the elderly while the state-run Medicaid program is supposed to insure the poor and those who would be poor without aid in paying medical bills.

Private insurers, through group insurance plans and individual contracts, cover many of the medical expenses of working people and the middle class.

But over 20 million people fall through the gap between federal and private insurance plans. Most are poor; a disproportionate number are minorities. They are effectively shut out of the system.

Despite the mounting expenses of Medicare and Medicaid that are worrying Washington, those programs are not as effective as they should be. Medicare, for example, covers less than half of the total health expenses of the elderly. And two-thirds of poor people are not covered by Medicaid.

Those that are, are subject to differing state regulations. Many states exclude two-parent families, childless couples, and single persons from Medicaid coverage. Others won't cover the medically needy -- those earning a little over the poverty level.

So there is a two class poverty system operating -- with one group of poor people covered by Medicaid and others who are not. That system will be worsened by the various cost-containment plans and by federal belt-tightening, as states make their Medicaid programs more restrictive and as new user fees are instituted.

By raising fees and restricting eligibility, costs are kept under control -- but only by squeezing more poeple into the no-man's land of denial of access to medical services.

The bulk of the federal health dollar goes to hospitals and nursing homes, but greater emphasis on primary care could be the key to long-term cost containment. That's because keeping people healthy is cheaper and easier than curing them when they are sick.

There is now renewed interest in health maintenance organizations and similar departures from the traditional fee-for-service approach that adds so much to the nation's health bill.

Such changes in the organization of health services, including greater reliance on neighborhood health clinics, make more sense than the present setup in which the local hospital emergency ward serves as the primary care center for the medically underserved.

We don't hear anything about national health insurance any more. That once-popular idea was buried by the swing to conservatism of recent years and by the massive rise in health care expenditures.

With the budget deficit around $200 billion and likely to remain high in the foreseeable future, a national health system with universal coverage doesn't seem politically possible.

Yet, it may be revived as the key to both braking total health care expenditures and to providing equal access to health care. There is nothing sacrosanct about the present system and this is a good time to consider alternatives.

GED Qualification Televised

The New Year's resolution to work for a high school degree will be given a substantial boost when KTPS, Channel 28, Tacoma's Public Television Station, begins airing a GED qualification series in early January.

The GED, General Education Development, certificate has been available in a variety of ways, but the upcoming series will be the first in this area geared for the livingroom screen, according to William H. Braswell, GED Chief Examiner and Supervisor at L.H. Bates Vocational Technical Institute.

"It will be a matter of convenience for those who may have wanted a high school education but weren't able to give it the required class time," Braswell said. "We've programmed it for 7:00 p.m. which has proved to be the most satisfactory for this partricular audience."

The first home viewing session will be at that time on Tuesdays and Thursdays, repeated Saturday from 3:00 to 4:00 p.m. There will be two classes per week for 17 weeks, Braswell reports. "Then, when the viewer...the student... feels the material has been assimilated, she or he may apply for the GED test at Bates Vo-Tech GED Testing Center, or one near their home."

Information on enrollment will be available in two weeks. "Watch for it!" Braswell said.

For further information, call him at Bates Vo-Tech, 597-7246.

Come To Church Services

PSALMS 39 -40:1-3

I SAID, I will take heed to my ways, that I sin not with my tonque: I will keep my mouth with a bridle, while the wicked is before me.

I was dumb with silence, I held my peace, even from good; and my sorrow was stirred.

My heart was hot within me, while I was musing the fire burned; then spake I with my tongue,

Lord, make me to know mine end, and the measure of my days, what it is, that I may know how frail I am.

Behold, thou hast made my days as an hand breadth; and mine age is as nothing before thee: verily every man at his best state is altogether vaniety. Se-lah.

Surely every man walketh in a vain shew: surely they are disquieted in vain: he heapeth up riches, and knoweth not who shall gather them.

And now, Lord, what wait I for? my hope is in thee.

Deliver me from all my transgressions; make me not the reproach of the foolish.

I was dumb, I opened not my mouth; because thou didst it.

Remove thy stroke away from me: I am consumed by the blow of thine hand.

When thou with rebukes dost correct man for iniquity, thou makest his beauty to consume away like a moth: surely every man is vanity. Se-lah.

Here my prayer, O Lord, and give ear unto my cry; hold not thy peace at my tears: for I am a stranger with thee, and a sojourner, as all my fathers were.

O spare me, that I may recover strength before I go hence, and be no more.

I WAITED patiently for the Lord; and he inclined unto me, and heard my cry.

He brought me up also out of an horrible pit, out of the miry clay, and set my feet upon a rock, and established my goings.

We welcome news of your church and civic events.

(The cost per shelter will be a major consideration). Designs may be submitted by any interested party at any level of detail.

For a detailed scope of work, please contact Kitsap Transit, 614 Division, Port Orchard, WA 98366/206-876-6026. Proposals will be accepted until 5:00 p.m., December 23, 1983.

KITSAP TRANSIT
REQUEST FOR PROPOSALS
COMPUTER SOFTWARE/INSTALLATION SUPPORT

Kitsap Transit is requesting proposals for provision and installation, including staff training as appropriate, of certain items/systems of computer software. The first items of software required are for inventory control and word processing. Future applications may include maintenance record-keeping keyed to the inventory system and an accounting system.

Kitsap Transit proposes to run the software on an IMB PCXT because that machine is available to Kitsap Transit via the State's Master Contract and accordingly the presentations should be based on that equipment.

To assure Kitsap Transit that obtaining the IBM PCXT through the State of Washington Purchasing Division is the most cost effective and appropriate for the intended application, presentors are invited to propose other hardware/software combinations that are comparable.

Detailed specifications may be obtained by contacting Kitsap Transit, 614 Division, Port Orchard, Washington, 98366, 206-876-6026.

The contractor will be required to comply with all applicable EEO laws and regulations, and will cooperate with Kitsap Transit in meeting its commitments and goals with respect to minority and women business enterprises. MBE and WBE percentages are 10% and 3% respectively.

PIERCE TRANSIT PUBLIC NOTICE

Notice is hereby given pursuant to the U.S. Department of Transportation, Urban Mass Transportation Administration, 49 CFR, Part 23 (as found in Volume 48, No. 141 of the Federal Register), that Pierce Transit has established, and submitted to the Urban Mass Transportation Administration, goals for the utilization of disadvantaged and women-owned businesses.

Pierce Transit has established an overall annual goal of 10% minimum for disadvantaged businesses and 3% for women-owned business, with sub-goals for individual contract areas as follows:

Contract-Area	Disadvantaged Business	Women-owned Business
construction	10%	3%
consultants	10%	5%
services	5%	5%
purchases	5%	3%

Individuals and organizations are invited to review Pierce Transit's Women and Disadvantaged Business Enterprise program and goals during the regular office hours of 8:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. at the Pierce Transit headquarters building, 1235 South Sprague Avenue, Tacoma, Washington 98405.

Inquiries relative to the program may be addressed to pierce Transit, Attn: Gisela Ratajski, Buyer, P.O. Box 5738, Tacoma, WA 98405.

Landowners who wish current use assessment for property tax purposes on lands eligible for classification under the open space law must submit an application to the Pierce County Assessor-Treasurer's Office by December 31, 1983 in order to receive consideration for 1984 property assessment.

Providing that acreage continues being used as originally intended, valuation of land for tax purposes under the Open Space Act is determined on the basis of "current use" rather than "highest and best use". Under circumstances where land use is changed or withdrawn, the land becomes liable for tax rollback penalties or compensating tax. Accordingly, some of the classified land area may be withdrawn, as long as remaining acreage meets the original requirements.

The Open Space Act requires that any agricultural lands approved for classification must be used for livestock or agricultural production. Farms with less than 20 acres are subject to minimum earnings in order to qualify.

Timberland owners should be aware that parcels of five or more acres will qualify under open space if forest crops are grown and harvested. Another option is that forest land of 20 or more acres could be designated under the Timber Tax Act if the owner so requests.

A third category, open space-open space is set up for sensitive areas such as wetlands, steep slopes, and shorelines which provide wildlife habitate or recreational opportunities.

Property owners may direct inquiries concerning all applications to Carl Hansen, Forester, Assessor-Treasurer's Office at 593-4699.

Firms offering Training Services are encouraged to add their firms name to the State of Washington Contractors List. This list is consulted by State Agencies when seeking Trainers.

For application, call (206) 754-2721.

Choosing Safe Toys

The CPSC and Toy Manufacturers of America (TMA) recommend these guidelines for selecting a safe toy:

Select toys to suit the age, skills, abilities, and interest of the individual child.

There are age recommendations on many toy packages; these may be used as guidelines for selecting SAFE as well as stimulating, educational toys.

If suupervision is required, be prepared to make the commitment and to set "ground rules" for play.

Instructions should be clear to you and, when appropriate, to the child.

Look for sturdy construction. When buying soft toys for young children, make sure you purchase a well-made item with eyes, nose, and any other small parts tightly secured.

For infants and toddlers, avoid toys with:

--small parts that children may put intheir mouths.

--long strings or cords that may cause strangulation.

Avoid toys that shoot or propel objects that may injure eyes or get lodged in throats.

Arrows or darts used by children should have soft cork tips, rubber suction cups or other protective tips. Check to be sure the tips are securely attached to their shafts. Examine these periodically to insure the protective tips remain secured.

Electric toys with heating elements are recommended only for children over eight years old, and only as long as there is adult supervision.

Consider the surroundings in which the toy will be used. Is there sufficient toy storage and play space? Will young children be exposed to toys designed for older children? Remember, younger children in the household may not know how to play with some toys safely.

Underprivileged Children Assured Of Santas Visit

Hundreds of underprivileged children in King County will again be assured a visit from Santa Claus this year through "Operation K" (for kiddies) sponsored by the Federal Executive Board and federal employees in Seattle.

New gifts, donated by the government workers, will be turned over to the Salvation Army at 11:00 a.m. on Friday, December 16, in the lobby of the Federal Building, 915 Second Avenue. The gifts will be distributed to the underprivileged youngsters through the Salvation Army's Toy and Joy Shoppe.

"Operation K" was initiated 29 years ago by the Seattle Veterans Administration Regional Office employees rather than exchanging Christmas gifts among themselves. VA Regional Office employee Ronald A. Davis has been chairman of the annual toy drive since its beginning. This year helping Davis to coordinate the program will be Glen Eskridge and Sharon Hill, both VA employees.

An estimated 27,873 gifts have been donated over the years to needy children in King County, according to Davis.

Friends Of Library

The Friends of the Tacoma Public Library invite you to join them as a "Friend" in 1984. It is a volunteer organization which provides financial support for activities and purchases which are not included in the Library's budget. Friends also support the Library by providing volunteers to help with special events.

Now, more than ever, the Library needs new Friends. Your member ship dues will help us provide the Library with much-needed financial support, and all contributions are fully tax-deductible. The Friends also need members who can volunteer some time working on one of many committees or assisting at the annual Used Book Sale, our primary fund-raising activity.

Please send your tax-deductable contribution today. Without your support, our organization cannot hope to provide the continued support our public library deserves. Become a "Friend among Friends" ..... join us in 1984. The Board of Directors meets the third Monday of each month at 10:30 am in the Lincoln Kaiser room at the Main Library. All members are welcome.
